OPRAH'S BIRTHDAY

OPRAH WINFREY WAS GIVEN A VERY special 50th birthday party a few weeks ago by Mr. Stedman Graham, who called on Botanicals to create an equally special mood. Casey Cooper had carte blanche to design and produce the affair, working with Linda Salecker and her wonderful team at the Metropolitan Club. What Casey conceived was a bountiful spring garden in full bloom – brimming with texture, bright color and energy, and befitting such a dynamic lady as Oprah. The design was meant to feel lavish enough for the occasion but on a scale to put 75 guests completely at ease. Did we succeed? Oprah featured the achievement prominently on her show, noting happily, “Stedman’s party was grand, but the mood was warm and intimate.”
