Still Life, or Red Snapper on Cake Stand, 2005

When you give acclaimed photographer Sandro plenty of room to play and a talented supporting cast, this fresh interpretation of the still life is the result. Perched upon an innocent and delicate cake stand, this red snapper ironically becomes a pleasing focal point on its bed of sophisticated flora and fauna. Glassblower Guy Corrie of Union Street Glass, food stylist Jackie Motooka and florist Casey Cooper all contributed to set the stage. by nicholas de laet
